

Atheist Alliance International Individual Membership Form

www.AtheistAlliance.org

While Atheist Alliance International (AAI) is primarily a coalition of local, democratic, grass-roots atheist organizations, it also recognizes that there are many isolated individual atheists who don't have such a grass-roots group handy. To provide them with a home until they can find (or form!) one, AAI also welcomes individual members. AAI has grown and prospered thanks to enthusiastic and hard-working volunteers, many of whom are exactly this kind of individual member.

The AAI Board consists of representatives chosen by each member society. Each member society, regardless of size, has one vote on the Board. The board makes major policy decisions and elects 4 officers and a 9-member council to conduct routine business.

You can be part of this world-class, world-wide atheist organization with your membership. Some of the benefits of membership include:

- Secular Nation, a quarterly magazine written, illustrated, edited, and published by and for AAI members.
- Student discounts.
- Preferred convention registration status for household, supporting household, and couple/single life members.
- 10% discount on non-subscription publications and products.
